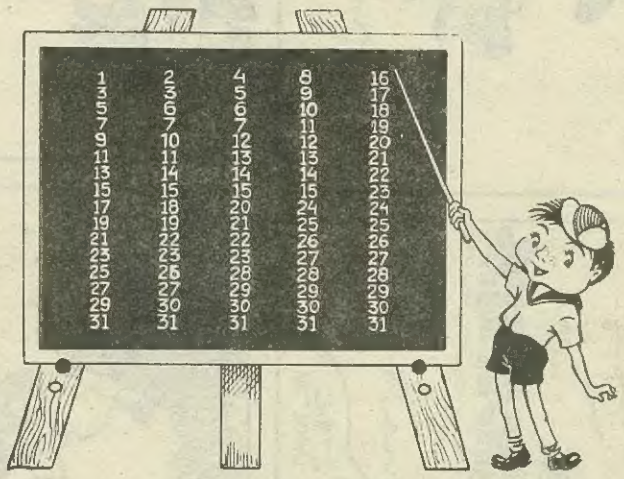
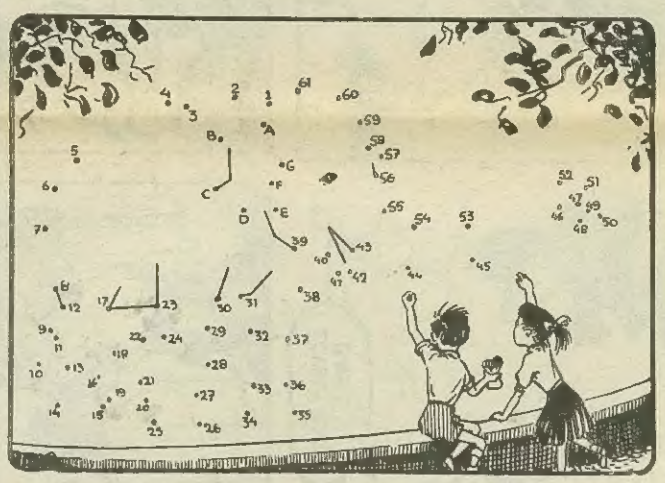
Puzzle-it-out!

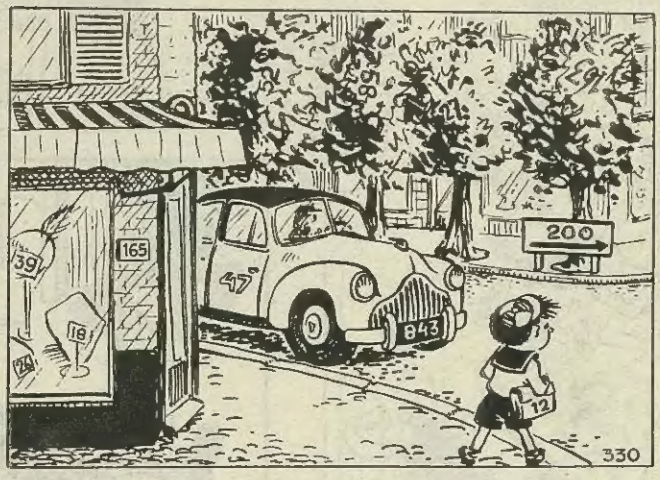
No. 1. You can have lots of fun and amaze your friends with this numbers puzzle! Ask a friend to pick any number between 1 and 31 and to tell you which columns it is in. By adding the first number of each of those columns, you can tell which number your friend has chosen! Take for example, the number 19 — it appears in the first, second and fifth columns. Therefore, add 1, 2, and 16 together. What do you get? 19!



No. 2. There are all sorts of animals to be seen at the zoo. You can find out which kind this is by joining the dots from 1 to 61 together. Then go from A to G.



No. 3. Take a look at this picture. Do you notice anything about it? Yes, there are several numbers in it — some easy to spot, some hidden. Find all the numbers and give their total.



ANSWER No. 3. 1980.

EXPLORE our past with a spade

ARE you excited about the past? Lots of people are — that's why they like watching archaeologists exposing clues preserved under our feet in quiet meadows and roaring cities.

Others go further and join in the adventure. They help discover how our ancestors lived and, even more important, they help in the never-ending fight to record as much evidence as possible before it is lost by the building of motorways and tower blocks.

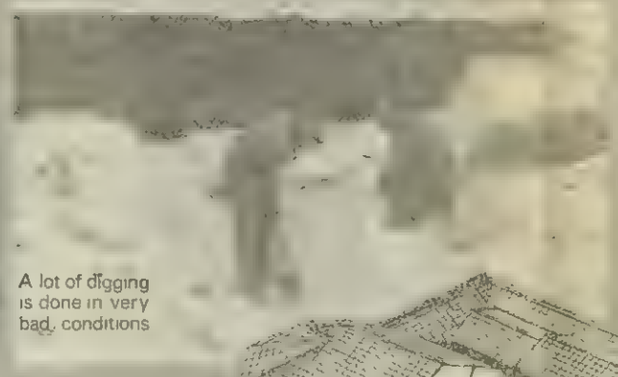
Most of the hard work is done by volunteers who slave away in baking heat and freezing cold digging up walls and ditches, rubbish pits, fragments of pottery, coins, nails and, of course, bones

Volunteer 'diggers' are people just like you and me. So if you are keen to become an amateur archaeologist don't do it by yourself — you would certainly lose and damage much valuable evidence. Join a local archaeological group whose address you can find at your library. There will find a lot of friendly people who will be glad to teach you all the do's and don'ts of digging and how to dig safely.

You will sense the joy of uncovering a world that has been untouched for centuries and all the fun of working with good friends in the open.

You would be picking and shovelling, pushing wheelbarrows, gently trowelling away deposits of earth, brushing stone walls or skeletons, washing pottery and holding tape measures. There's something for every boy and girl to do!

Digging is hard work and is often carried out in uncomfortable and dangerous conditions. Most groups welcome teenagers. You'll need lots of old clothes and strong shoes or boots. A four-inch pointing trowel like those pictured here is the basic tool — others are supplied on the site. You need lots of enthusiasm, a cheerful nature, a resistance to weather, dirt, and worms and strong back!
Oddi/gginggo!



A lot of digging is done in very bad conditions

Dr WHO

On a planet similar to earth, Doctor Who saves Petra, an escaped Braggen, from sinister Kling warriors. But the Doctor is unable to stop the Klings — who keep all Braggens enslaved — from stealing the Tardis. They drag it into a heavily guarded Temple. Petra and the Doctor follow . . .

POLICE

DOCTOR, A KLING..!

OH, DEAR! THAT MAKES THINGS AWKWARD!..

NNNNGH!

...FOR HIM! DOESN'T HE KNOW IT'S RUDE TO POINT— PARTICULARLY WEAPONS!

HE IS UNCONSCIOUS! YOU SAVE US AGAIN, DOCTOR. YOUR SKILL IS REMARKABLE!

(H'MM!) SO'S THIS HELMET...

...IT CONTAINS A HIGHLY-SOPHISTICATED RECEIVER ...THAT CONTROLS THE MIND OF WHOEVER WEARS THIS...

DOCTOR ...!

THE KLINGS MUST PATROL THE WHOLE AREA...

WE'D BETTER SURRENDER. THAT WAY, WE MIGHT DISCOVER WHO THEY WORK FOR...

BUT..

UHH!

AAAAGH!

WITHIN MINUTES..

THEY ARE LUCKY, WE ONLY PARALYSED THEM. THEY WILL RECOVER SOON ENOUGH!

TAKE THEM TO THE COLONY! THIS ONE'S NO BRAGGEN. I'LL REPORT TO THE TEMPLE...

WHERE, EVEN AT THAT MOMENT.

THE BOX YOU BRING ME IS A SPACECRAFT! I WARN YOU, GRAAK. FIND THE STRANGER YOU SPOKE OF! HE IS A TIME LORD!

I WILL NOT FAIL, EMPEROR!

ALERT ALL KLINGS! THE TIME LORD'S POWER IS GREAT! HE IS A THREAT. HE MUST BE DESTROYED!

AS GRAAK'S INTERVIEW ENDS...

I'VE BEEN WAITING FOR YOU, COMMANDER GRAAK. IT'S ABOUT MY TWO PRISONERS. ONE WAS...STRANGE...

THE TIME LORD!

HE WILL BE AT THE COLONY BY NOW.

PREPARE THE TROOP!

MEANWHILE.

CHAIN THEM LIKE THE OTHERS! THEY TOO WILL WORK IN THE SWAMP...

OOMPH!

BEFORE LONG..

THE KLINGS FORCE MY PEOPLE TO SEEK THESE SMALL CRYSTALS, DOCTOR!

THEY'RE THE SAME AS THE ONE IN THAT KLING HELMET!

THE GUARD'S ATTENTION IS DRAWN, AS...

MORE KLINGS ARRIVE. WHY?

I'VE A HUNCH THEY WANT ME. I'M FINISHED UNLESS I CAN HIDE!

YOU WILL NOT LEAVE ME BEHIND, DOCTOR!

VERY WELL! BUT JUST HOPE THEY DON'T LOOK UNDER THEIR VERY NOSES!

GRAAK'S VOICE CARRIES..

I COME FROM THE EMPEROR, HIMSELF... EXECUTE THE STRANGER IMMEDIATELY!

THE EDITOR'S Letterbox

Dear Editor,
Thought you might like to know that I am a regular reader of Mighty TV COMIC here in Rhodesia. I like all the cartoons in TV COMIC, but Mighty Moth, Hagar The Horrible best

Ian Grace,
Salisbury, Rhodesia.

It's nice to know you're receiving us loud and clear in sunny Rhodesia, Ian. I'd like to hear from any other readers who live in far off lands. So if you live anywhere between Australia and Afghanistan, write and tell other TV COMIC readers about your school, hobbies and anything else you like!

Dear Editor,
My name is Kristian Paul Hammond and I am just six and half years old Do you know what can run but cannot walk? No? The answer is water!

Kristian Hammond,
Bristol.

Dear Editor,
I am writing to tell you about an incident that happened during the special assembly at the end of the first year in my present school. The headmaster was giving a farewell speech and towards the end he asked us to be helpful to our Mums and not to be nuisances. At that very moment, there was a tremendous crash of thunder, and the whole of the hall burst out laughing. It was as if we'd been warned of the consequences!

Aniruddha Das,
Harrow, Middlesex.

Dear Editor,
My Mother keeps on saying that Dad looks like actor Patrick Cargill. Could you show a picture, please, of Mr Cargill so I can make a comparison for myself? I buy TV COMIC every week just to read Doctor Who. I am twelve years old

Linda Hewitt, Aldershot.

Certainly, Linda. A picture of the distinguished actor is shown above

Dear Editor,
My name is Sunjay. I am nine years old I am writing to tell you about my neighbour Rima She makes fun of me because I get TV COMIC — she is nine years old, too What shall I say to her? My hobby is swimming and my favourite stories are Tom and Jerry

Sunjay Kakar,
Hounslow, Middlesex.

Thank you for writing, Sunjay. I am sure Rima is only envious of you being a regular TV COMIC reader! Perhaps you could give some of your old ones when you've finished with them and win her over that way!

Dear Editor
My name is David Hopkins and I am nine years old. My hobby is making ships and I also like reading about fishing. I have a fishing rod but it doesn't have a reel My Dad used to go fishing when he was a boy and mostly caught trout. I have two more hobbies, football and swimming. My favourite stories in TV COMIC are Tom and Jerry, Barney Bear and The Pink Panther

David Hopkins,
Gloucester.

What a healthy, outdoor life you lead, David! You are fortunate to live in a good area of the country for fishing, so keep it up!

Dear Editor,
One day after lunch my mother and I went shopping When we came back my sister had something to tell us. Pippa our dog had eaten six sausages that had been left out in the kitchen My sister said that Pippa had a very guilty look, which made her look like Droopy! My favourite character in TV COMIC is Basil Brush

Lucy Salisbury,
Epsom, Surrey.

Glad to hear Pippa's not a sausage dog! We decided to 'give the dog a bone' and who better to present it than Droopy?

Dear Editor,
Do you know what happens when you dial 666? Three policemen will approach you walking upside down! My favourite feature in Mighty TV COMIC is Tom and Jerry

Shona Waddell,
South Glasgow.

Dear Editor
My name is Paul and I am eleven years old. I have been reading TV COMIC for about five years and enjoy it very, very much. The best stories are TV Terrors, Basil Brush and Doctor Who. My hobbies are football and basketball. I have a brother called Marvin and a sister Joanne I also have a dog called Mitzie

Paul Littlejohn,
Chessington, Surrey.

Why not write to us? We would also like to receive pictures of yourselves, family and friends. There's a £1 for anything published, so don't delay . . .
